DAVE SCHROEDER & BOB SCHRAGE WILL INTRODUCE THEIR BOOK AT MAY 19TH MEETING

This book will focus on history lost in Northern Kentucky in business and industry, religious structures, schools and civic buildings, recreation, and residences. While there are so many structures in these categories lost to history, there are also success stories where buildings have been saved. It would not do history justice without talking about some of the saved buildings. They represent great history that through reuse are right before our eyes and their historic grandeur still present. Unfortunately, much has been lost including great churches such as First Baptist in Dayton, Saint Aloysius in Covington, and Marydale in Boone County. Other lost history includes the beaches of Dayton and Bellevue, hospitals like Spears and Covington's St. Elizabeth, and beautiful civic buildings such as the Covington City Hall and the old federal building. Beverly Hills Supper Club, Lookout House, Bavarian Brewery and Wiedemann Brewery are excellent examples of lost businesses and industry.

Historic Marker to be Moved

This Kentucky Historic Highway Marker for the Skirmish at Florence, (Marker 550) was placed in this location in 1962 by the Kentucky Historical Society in an effort to promote tourism in the state. The location of this marker is at the busy intersection of U.S. 25 & 42 which is close to the actual location of the Skirmish. However, it is hard to read the marker due to its location.

The City of Florence is constructing a new mini-park and parking lot called Bell Park located at Main and Shelby Streets across from the old fire house. During the actual skirmish, a civilian, Larkin Vaughn, was killed by a stray bullet. He was standing in front of the location of this new park. The city has requested the Kentucky Historical Society to move this marker from its present location to the new Bell Park where people could stop and read the marker.

ABOUT THE BOONE COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The mission of the Boone County Historical Society is to develop awareness and promote appreciation of the history of Boone County, Kentucky. We are fortunate to partner with the Boone County Public Library.

The Boone County Historical Society provides program meetings at 7pm on the third Thursday evenings of March, May, July, September and November.

Meetings (except for July) are held at the Boone County Public Library, Main Library, 1786 Burlington Pike, Burlington, Kentucky. July "out-and-about" meetings are held at various locations around the County.

The Society hosts a number of exhibits at the BCHS Museum (see page 3) each year. Most items for these exhibits are borrowed on a temporary basis from our members and friends, and do not belong to the Society. We greatly appreciate being entrusted with these loaned items that relate to our exhibits.

Items in our permanent collection have been donated by individuals and families who desire to share with others items of historical significance to Boone County. Their generosity is gratefully appreciated.

Annual membership fee is $15 per household, due every March. This covers the cost of printing and mailing our newsletters. Checks, payable to the Boone County Historical Society, can be mailed to the Boone County Historical Society, P.O. Box 23, Florence, KY 41022-0023.

The Boone County Historical Society has received a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status — all gifts to the Society are tax deductible.

All programs and exhibits are free and open to the public.
